As per the request of applicants representative, the Examiner went over this application again and reconsidered his rejections. Based upon the foregoing, the Examiner indicated that he (a) considered the three art rejections to be tenable (although the second of these could be considered to be the weakest); and (b) could not see himself allowing anything in this application over the applied references of record, the primary or base reference being seen to fairly document applicants envisioned inventive method, with the secondary reference reinforcing the teaching of the primary reference.
